

Proactive vs. Reactive

Can you decide which statements are proactive or reactive? Cut out and paste the correct statements in the correct boxes.

Proactive

Reactive

Be Proactive - Make Good Choices

Cut each box out and paste it in the correct place.

Olivia took a note to the office. She walked quietly down the hall and then went straight back to class.

Sam received a bad grade on his test. He gives the paper to his mom to sign and tells her he knows he can do better.

Josh and his team lost the ball game. Josh yelled at his team it was their fault they lost.

Lucas got mad at his homework and crumpled up his paper.

Kate spilled juice on her friend's shirt. She hid the shirt and did not tell her friend about it.

Kim did not get the library she wanted. Someone else checked it out. She asked to be put on a waiting list.

Jessica gave up on the game she was playing. She couldn't figure it out and did not ask for help.

Chris apologized right away when he bumped into someone in the hallway.

Mason needed help with finding his coat. I told him I would help look for it.

Alley got frustrated with her math homework. She said it's too hard and gave up.